Schedule A

The word “estate” is used to express the degree, quantity, nature, duration, or extent of an interest in land. A “fee” is the highest type of estate or interest an owner can have in land – freely transferable and inheritable, and whose owner is entitled to possession. (There are a number of other estates or interests in land that we could insure; examples would be leasehold, oil and minerals, easement, etc.)

This shows who the owner of record is and how they hold title. (Two distinct items)

The legal description of the land covered by the preliminary title report.

Explanation Page

From this point on, items against the property will be shown chronologically, the oldest first and so on, thereby reflecting the priority in which each affects the title record.

ITEMS 7 AND 8

Recorded Easements: Either created by the recording of the map or by specific grant. An easement is a right or interest through the land of another which entitles the holder thereof to some use, privilege, or benefit upon or over said land.

ITEM 9

CC&R's: Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions are the limitations or qualifications imposed on the use of a particular parcel of land.

Note that the first sentence contains a subordination clause - This is made a part of all modern day Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions because lenders do not want the CC&R's to have priority over their loan.

Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions can be modified by the Subdivider until he/she first deeds out the property. Afterwards, all the land owners must join in for a modification to be valid.

ITEM 10

Deed of Trust: A deed of trust conveys title to a particular property to a neutral third party (trustee) with limited powers (such as powers of sale) for the purpose of securing a loan. The three parties to this document are the trustor (borrower), the trustee, and the beneficiary (lender).

Substitution of Trustee: A new trustee was substituted for the trustee named in the deed of trust.

Notice of Default: The terms of the trust deed were violated (e.g., failure to pay monthly installments) and, as a result, a notice of said default was recorded.

Notice of Trustee Sale: The delinquency noted in the notice of default was not cured and this is the next step in the non-judicial foreclosure process.

(ITEMS NOT SHOWN)

Subordination Agreement: If the parties have agreed that a deed of trust is to be a "second" (or "junior") lien, a recorded subordination agreement states this fact. The agreement may be a separate instrument or it may be incorporated within the deed of trust which is to become subordinate.

Modification Agreement: The terms of a trust deed may be modified in a number of ways (e.g., provisions for additional advances, extension of maturity dates, etc.) by agreement executed by the trustor and beneficiary or their successors.

Assignment: An assignment of the beneficial interest under the deed of trust from the original beneficiary to another.

"NOTE: section 12955 of the government code provide the following: if this document contains any restriction based on race, color, religion, sex, familial status, marital status, disability, national origin, or ancestry, that restriction violates state and federal fair housing laws and is void, and may be removed pursuant to Section 12955 of the government code. Lawful restriction under state and federal law on the age of occupants in senior housing for older persons shall not be construed as restriction based on familial status."
